My dear Aunt:

I agree with you about the probation of Fan's will. No good can come from it, only expense. I thought you ought to have it in your possession, in case any of her relatives questioned the possibility of a will. What bunk—this Saint business! Let us know when the committal service will be held. Ella and I want to be there.

Don't you want us to bear a part of the burial expenses? We ought to. Love to you and Gus from both.

Cordially
JEF
